Re: Representation

Dear Mr. Bricklin:

On behalf of Visionary Vehicles LLC ("VV"), you have asked my Firm, Zukerman Gore & Brandeis, LLP (the "Firm") to represent you in a $200 million institutional private equity financing and in general corporate matters (the "Engagement"). To foster better client understanding, we make it a practice to describe and reduce to writing the bases, conditions and agreements on which our Firm provides and bills for legal services. This letter will serve as our Professional Services Agreement (the "Agreement") in connection with our work for VV.

If the following terms are acceptable, I would appreciate you executing this in the spaces provided, faxing a copy to me at (212) 223-6433, and returning one signed copy of the letter to me by mail. Please retain a copy of the letter for your records. If you have any comments or concerns about any aspect of this Agreement, please let me know.

1. Professional Undertaking. I will have primary responsibility for the representation, and will use other attorneys and legal assistants in the office in the best exercise of my professional judgment. In the event that there arise any questions regarding the staffing of any matters during the course of our Engagement, please contact me immediately.

2. Fees. In general, our billings are based on the amount of time expended. Our hourly rates for attorneys and other members of the staff are based on years of experience, specialization in training and practice, and level of professional attainment. These rates are reconsidered and readjusted from time to time, generally (but not invariably) on an annual basis. My billing rate is currently $495 per hour. The billing rates of our other partners range from $375 - $550 an hour. The billing rates of our associates who may work on the Engagement range from $200 to $350 per hour. Whenever practical, we shall endeavor to utilize lower-cost professionals, provided that they have the requisite level of expertise, to provide the necessary legal services.

3. Disbursements. It is often necessary for us to incur out-of-pocket expenses for ancillary services such as photocopying, local messengers, overnight delivery services, obtaining public filings, long distance telephone calls, travel, facsimile transmission, secretarial overtime, computerized legal research and other matters. These costs are set forth on our statements which are discussed more fully below.

4. Statements. We generally render invoices monthly and ask that you review each statement carefully upon receipt. We are, of course, available at all times to answer questions you may have about our activities or our invoices. Due to our operating needs, invoices are due and payable upon receipt. We reserve the right to discontinue work on pending matters or to terminate our representation and the attorney-client relationship if any invoice from the Firm (or any of the suppliers we engage on your behalf) remains unpaid beyond 30 days of the invoice date.

Payment to us can be made by check payable to the Firm or by wire transfer as follows:

Upon termination and payment of any outstanding bills as provided by law, you are entitled to receive all documents and files prepared by us for you, and we are permitted to retain copies (made at our expense) of these same materials. The Firm is not required to release files to you until the Firm's invoices have been paid in full. You may terminate our representation at any time, subject to any right of payment that may have accrued to us as of the time of any such termination, which shall survive our representation and/or any termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

By signing this Agreement, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to its terms, and that this letter contains the entire contract with the Firm for legal services described herein.

I truly look forward to a long-term professional relationship with you and VV.

Very truly yours,
